1. Lines 67 - 97 an add function that takes a value and inserts it into a given position into the list

2. Lines 22 - 43 a remove function that takes a position and removes the value stored at that position of the list and returns it

3. Lines 43 - 65 a get function that takes a position and returns that value without removing it